

Our Retreat Speaker

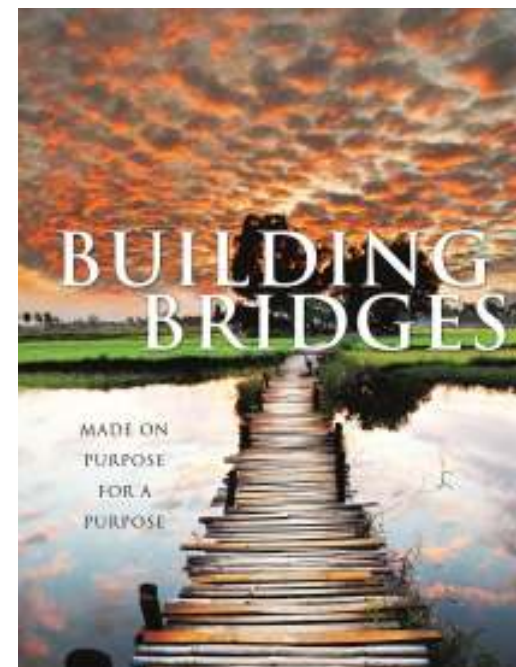

Steph's purpose is to encourage hearts to know Christ. A humorous and captivating communicator, Steph leverages real life stories to illustrate biblical truths. She provides practical principles to leave hearts to purposeful lives. She's a former cop and military veteran. Steph's now an inspirational speaker and author of three books that are available on Amazon. Her proudest titles are Dave's wife and Jake and Cal's "Smother". Steph uses her platform to spread awareness about human trafficking and partnered with the A21 Campaign to fight modern day slavery. She loves encouraging hearts at same day events, weekend retreats, leadership conferences, mom groups, in her neighborhood or on the sidelines of her kids activities. You can find her at Encouraged in Heart on social media overusing hashtags. To learn more about Steph visit her website encourageinheart.com Retreat is a great time for spiritual renewal, fellowship, and fun. We are looking forward to our wonderful speaker this year and all the fun activities we can fit into three days.

Smoking Policy: Sandy Cove Conference Center has a no smoking policy indoors. There are designated smoking areas outside of the Lodge.

Please be in prayer for our retreat committee and our speaker as they plan for this event. If you have questions, please contact a council member: Brooke Thompson, Cheryl Dunbar, Cheryl Finn, Tracy Holden, Karon Lawson, Gladly Prosisie, or Leslie Stark.

In Him,

People look at the outward appearance,
but the Lord looks at the heart.
